

Empower Your Employees To Help Control Confidentiality

Document Shredder Model SH6A

The security and confidentiality of your company's documents is critical in today's environment. And in an office setting where you have several employees working with key information, it's more important than ever to ensure that your private information is kept that way. Now you can make it easy for your employees to help protect that confidentiality with the Pitney Bowes® Shredder model SH6A. This model is designed for easy access in any office environment and will blend nicely with your office décor.

Medium Duty Shredding

The model SH6A provides medium duty shredding capabilities, including the acceptance of staples and paper clips with whisper quiet operation. Documents are shredded in a cross-cut fashion to help you assure that your confidential material is safely destroyed and your company's privacy protected.
