

The modular, customizable, totally secure locker system

Pitney Bowes On the go™ Package Pickup

When packages and overnights arrive at your company, you need to ensure timely delivery and chain of custody—serving a more agile workforce with fewer staff resources.

That's why more organizations are now turning to Pitney Bowes On the go™ Package Pickup. This advanced, self-service package delivery system relies on secure technologies to increase convenience, confidence and cost-efficiency at every step.

SIMPLIFY PACKAGE PROCESSING

Just scan an item and secure it in a single-use locker. A notification is automatically sent to the recipient.

INCREASE ACCOUNTABILITY

Once a letter, parcel or overnight is secured, it can only be retrieved by its intended recipient.

SERVE TODAY'S MOBILE WORKFORCE

Make it easy for those who travel to pick up mail and packages at their convenience.

GAIN EFFICIENCIES EVERY DAY

Extend service hours without adding staff, and eliminate the hassles of package management, tracking and delivery.

Offer more convenient, more secure package retrieval.

Easy to install. Even easier to manage.

Easy to install. Even easier to manage. This one-stop, automated package pick-up system can be configured for any corporate environment.

- Serve today's mobile workforce more effectively
- Ensure chain-of-custody with secure package storage
- Automatically alert recipients when they have a pickup
- Add security with PIN or signature capture requirements
- Increase first-time delivery with convenient package pickup

Get the one electronic locker system that streamlines every step of package handling

Simplified processing

Just scan each item and place it in the appropriately-sized locker. You can even integrate data with your existing delivery tracking system.

Personalized communications

Automatically notify employees by text or email, with detailed instructions on how to retrieve their packages.

Accountable package pickup

When recipients arrive at the locker, they must swipe their employee ID cards, or enter the unique PIN or barcode that's generated for every item.

Simplicity. Security. Savings.
